

Lactation Resources

If you are a breastfeeding mother attending school or working at the University, you'll be glad to know about the many on-site lactation stations. While it may be hard to leave your baby, it should be easy to maintain your milk supply. Most women find it takes less than 15 minutes to express their milk. The lactation stations provide privacy for mothers who have their own hand- or battery-operated pumps.

Location	Contact	Information
Brooks Building, Room FB 137 Computer Science Department	Brian White 962-1786 or Dorothy Turner 962-1922	Lockable room with a comfortable chair, sink and small refrigerator.
Carolina Women's Center 215 W. Cameron Avenue Carriage House	962-8305	Hospital-grade breast pump available.
Center for Women's Health Research 104B Market Street (Southern Village)	843-7720	No pump available.
School of Education – Peabody Hall, Room 212C		Room should be open. If room is locked, the Business Office or Dean's Office will open the room.
Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center	Wendy Sarratt 966-8643 wendy_sarratt@unc.edu	No pump available. Curtained space in shower room in the first floor rest room. Push door to open.

MacNider Hall, Room 310	966-1321	This room locks from the inside. There is a door sign to indicate occupancy. Contains a sink, but no pump.
Murphy Hall, Room 004	962-7191	Key available in Room 212 (must have UNC OneCard). No pump available.
North Carolina Botanical Garden 100 Old Mason Farm Road	962-0522	N/A
School of Public Health, Room 210 Rosenau Hall	Linda Mitchell 966-7831	Two hospital-grade pumps available.
Frank Porter Graham Student Union, Room 3200	962-2286	Key available at Student Union Information Desk. No pump available.
Wilson Hall, Room G-32	N/A	Code available from Jason in room B-31. No pump available.

Related Subjects:

Lactation Policy