

Star Heels Award Program

The Star Heels Award Program is made possible by the generous sponsorship of TIAA-CREF. The program provides awards to individual departments in order recognize and reward excellent employees. Under this program, departments are given flexibility to choose award criteria and timing of awards.

Eligibility Criteria

Nominators: All University employees (including temporaries) are eligible to submit nominations.

Nominees: All permanent employees. This includes SPA, EPA Non-Faculty, and Faculty. Recipients are selected on a departmental level then submitted to Benefits Services for award distribution.

Awards

Award recipients will receive a $30 Visa gift card, as well as a frame-able certificate in an embossed folder.

Administration

The Star Heels Award Program is administered by Benefits Services in the Office of Human Resources.

The number of awards allocated to each department will be based proportionately on the number of employees within each department. Star Heel departmental award allocations must be distributed no later than May 31 of each fiscal year.

For questions regarding this program, contact Benefits Services.
