WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

2017

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the 2017 national theme for Women's History Month is "Honoring Trailblazing Women in Leadership and Business;" and

WHEREAS, throughout our nation's history, women have actively challenged structures that unjustly marginalized populations, while leading revolutions and fighting oppression; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina is proud to be home to a diverse population of women dedicated to our nation's well-being and whose courageous efforts advance the livelihood of the masses; and

WHEREAS, women make up 51 percent of the population in the State of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina celebrates the 54th year of the Governor's Council for Women and Youth Involvement, an initiative charged with advancing and protecting the rights of women, providing a voice of influence on issues affecting women, and celebrating women's achievement and leadership throughout the state; today, the Council continues to provide guidance for the Governor and legislature on a myriad of issues facing today's women, including leadership attainment, violence against women, education and economic security; and

WHEREAS, this month and throughout the year, the State of North Carolina is proud to salute the accomplishments of women committed to making a difference, and to encourage citizens to learn more about the impact women have made and continue to make on North Carolina history;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 2017, as "WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.
