

Got Drugs?

Operation Medicine Drop is an event supported by UNC Chapel Hill Police and UNC Wellness Centers. This free community service event allows the public to safely dispose of outdated and unused prescriptions and over-the-counter medication. The process helps keep medicines out of the hands children and out of our water supply. Medicine is disposed of properly and safely.

UNC HEALTH.

Join us at the Total Wellbeing Expo
Wed., March 13
Fetzer Hall | 210 South Road

A 3D rendering of several pills and capsules. One large white pill in the foreground is embossed with the word "unused" and a large "Rx" symbol. Behind it are several blue and white capsules, one of which is embossed with the word "dispose".

unused
Rx

dispose

For more information, please visit www.dea.gov